HEMATOLOGY UPDATE COURSE DIRECTOR

Dr. Robert S. Siegel is a Professor of Medicine at The George Washington University School of Medicine & Health Sciences and currently serves as the Associate Center Director for Education, Training and Network Development for the GW's Cancer Center. He is board-certified in Internal Medicine, Medical Oncology, and Hematology.

Dr. Siegel received his BA from Stanford University in 1973, and his MD degree from George Washington University in 1977. His internship, residency, and fellowship all occurred at the Duke University Medical Center in Durham, North Carolina. Dr. Siegel returned to GW as a faculty member in 1982, was promoted to associate professor in 1989 and full professor with tenure in 2000.

Upon returning to GW, he spearheaded the effort to create an oncology unit, which was dedicated in the spring of 1984 and established the Cancer Conference and Tumor Board in the same year. He was instrumental in establishing a certified hospital tumor registry and cancer program in 1985, which has been accredited by the American College of Surgeons every 3 years since then, usually with commendation. He has been chairman of the Cancer Committee since 1987.

Dr. Siegel's research initially focused on immune thrombocytopenic purpura. Through his work, the pathophysiology and therapy of this disease is far better understood. In his early years at GW, he also led our research program looking at the natural history of sickle cell disease. Later, he was among the first researchers who documented the inferior survival of African American breast cancer patients, compared to their Caucasian counterparts, because of a biologically more aggressive disease. Subsequent studies around the country have validated these results. Recently, Dr. Siegel has led an effort that appears to show excellent survival and minimal toxicity from a new therapy for advanced Head and Neck Cancer.

Dr. Siegel has been Director of the Oncology Unit since its inception in 1984. He also led the Cancer Center since from 1993 to 2015. He founded the Katzen Cancer Research Center in 2008 and was its Director and Board Chairman until the fall of 2016. Dr. Siegel served as Director of the Division of Hematology and Oncology from 1997-2015. He was chairman of GW's Institutional Review Board from 1998 through 2003 and was a member of the IRB for 23 years.

He has supervised the GW Medical School's first and second-year Hematology program since 1982, and has been Director of the GW Best Practices Course, the largest program of its kind in the country since 1996. He is the Course Director of the very successful annual Oncology Update and Hematology Update programs for cancer physicians in the Washington, DC region. He also leads a Breast Cancer Consortium, which is composed of Medical Oncologists, Radiation Oncologists and surgeons.

Dr. Siegel has received numerous rewards for excellence in clinical care. He is consistently labeled by Washingtonian Magazine as one of the area's best physicians. In 2017 he received the George Washington University Alumni Achievement Award. He was given the Leonard Tow Humanism Award by the George Washington University in 2005 and the "Commitment to Overcoming Cancer Award" in 2008 by the GW Cancer Institute.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.
